

-25-

Abstract

Methods and Compositions for Treating Allergic Reactions

5       Methods and compositions for treating allergic reactions, including cutaneous, ocular, nasal and bronchial allergic disease, are disclosed. Interleukin-1 and Tumor Necrosis Factor receptors, and analogues thereof, are employed which bind the respective effector competitively and thereby suppress allergic reactions.